Join us as we celebrate the District's resiliency and look ahead to designing a better healthcare future.

The Medical Society of the District of Columbia's physician community numbers over 3,000 members from all medical specialties who practice in independent practice, group practice or at the area's major health systems. The annual meeting is a premiere evening event that attracts healthcare leaders and physicians from across the greater metropolitan Washington area.

Do You Want to Stand Out From the Rest?

MSDC and our members are designing a better healthcare future for our patients, just as we have since 1817. Support DC's healthcare heroes at this special event, our first in-person annual meeting since 2019. Join us as we celebrate our 205th year, inaugurate our new leadership, and build on the resilience of physicians as we look ahead to the future – one you can be a part of.

Top 5 Reasons to Sponsor MSDC's 2021 Annual Meeting

- 1 Boost brand awareness among DC physicians and healthcare thought leaders.
- 2 Support DC's healthcare heroes
- 3 Support MSDC's charitable work through supporting our VIP experiences
- 4 Face-to-face time with physicians from across the metropolitan Washington region.
- 5 Range of opportunities that fit any budget.

2021 Venue Details

American Institute of Architects Courtyard

With distinctive architecture, two-story glass windows, a grand staircase, and a private courtyard oasis, AIA's urban location near the White House is a perfect gathering place for our annual meeting and gala. Overlooking the event is The Octagon, designed by MSDC member Dr. William Thornton and temporary residence for President and Dolly Madison in 1814 after the burning of the White House.

Address: 1735 New York Ave NW, Washington, DC 20006

Benefits to Sponsors

This annual evening event attracts physicians from across the greater metropolitan Washington area. Through sponsorship or advertising, you can increase visibility and exposure, build relationships with physicians of various specialties, promote your valuable services or products, or recognize one of this year's distinguished honorees. Benefits include:

- Face-to-face time with physicians from across the metropolitan Washington region
- Exposure to MSDC's over 3,000 members via the MSDC website and promotional mailings
- The ability to directly support MSDC's charitable work in medical education and physician wellbeing
- Opportunity to sponsor smaller, more intimate VIP experience gatherings during the meeting

MSDC staff will work with you to identify which opportunity is best suited to your organizational goals and set you apart from your competition. The 2021 Annual Meeting offers businesses all kinds of opportunities, ranging from display tables, recognition in mailings and promotion, advertising in the Program Book to a customized package of benefits. MSDC Corporate Partners and previous sponsors receive additional marketing benefits.
