

AMA ALTERNATE DELEGATE

E.W. Emanuel, MD, MBA, CPE, FACOG

Dr. E.W. Emanuel is an Ob/Gyn physician, who joined the Mid-Atlantic Permanente Medical Group in July 1999. He has served in the following key roles: Lead Physician, Associate Chief of Services, Chief of OB/GYN, and Executive Director of Surgical Specialties. His most recent position was the Associate Medical Director, where he was responsible for health education, health promotions, marketing liaison, women-child service lines, transgender health services, and occupational health and integrated disability management.

He started and developed the Transgender Health Services in the Mid-Atlantic States in January 2013, and the Comprehensive Perinatal Program in November of 2014. Dr. Emanuel received his board certifications from the American Board of Obstetrics-Gynecology and the Certifying Commission in Medical Management.

He is a native New Yorker, who received his undergraduate degree in chemistry from New York University, his medical degree from George Washington University, his Master in Business Administration from Loyola University (Maryland), and completed the Harvard Business School Executive Leadership Program.

Dr. Emanuel has served on the Medical Society Board of Directors since 2015 and serves as Chair of the Membership Task Force. He is currently President-elect and will be installed as President at the 2020 MSDC Annual Meeting.

Matthew E. Lecuyer, MD, MPH, FAAP

Dr. Matthew Lecuyer is board-certified in General Pediatrics, a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics, and an active member of the American Medical Association. He is an attending at Children's National Hospital, where he practices Pediatric Emergency Medicine. He is an Instructor of Pediatrics and Emergency Medicine at the George Washington School of Medicine and Health Sciences. He received his medical degree from the University of Massachusetts School of Medicine (Worcester, MA) and completed his residency in General Pediatrics at McGaw-Northwestern/Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago. Dr. Lecuyer completed his fellowship in Pediatric Emergency Medicine at Brown University/Hasbro Children's Hospital (Providence, RI), and completed his master's degree in public health at the Brown University School of Public Health.

Dr. Lecuyer attended college in Washington, DC, at Georgetown University, and he has been an MSDC member since returning to the District in 2019. He has been involved in organized medicine since his first year of medical school and is excited to act as a lead member for the Bright Young Doctors Section and as Chair of the Task Force on Unconscious Bias in Medicine. He has previously served as the Chair of the AMA Resident and Fellow Section and as an Alternate Delegate for the Massachusetts Delegation to the AMA.

When not at the hospital or working within organized medicine, Dr. Lecuyer enjoys running, traveling, and all things Disney.
